

Modern British handpainted china thimbles

1978-2022

At the start of the modern thimble collecting era of the late 1970s, some of Great Britain's china houses produced handpainted thimbles. This was a time consuming and costly exercise. The demand avalanche for instant and cheaper thimbles swamped thimble manufacturers as we entered 1980. The porcelain houses realised that creating their own decals or transfers using a skilled artist would speed up production and an unlimited number could be churned out.

Initially, companies like Caverswall had their artists hand-touch their designs with spots of paint and you will find artists' names like William Tipton, John Ball, C Nunn, Holmes Gray or Mary Grant named on the thimbles. These are not handpainted thimbles: just hand-touched.

Sutherland, who produced china thimbles the longest, made thimbles in the same way – but didn't even follow the hand-touched route. Some of their thimbles are labelled hand enamelled. Rather a few spots of enamel enhances the design – this is known as champleve. JB, ME and PH (Pauline Haughton) are initials found on Sutherland thimbles enhanced in this manner.

Royal Worcester, the doyenne of handpainted thimbles from the 1870s, faced the same problem. They did not want to employ more artists and thimbles are time-consuming to paint freehand with at least three firings. In the 1970s, the foreman of the painters' division, Edward Townsend, came up with a solution. He designed a number of outline prints - which were printed onto the blank thimbles. The artists did not have to create an individual painting but merely coloured in the blank design. This speeded up the process noticeably. Even that didn't help as by 1986, the last handpainted RW thimble was painted. They turned to decal thimbles to keep up with demand.

The pendulum did begin to swing back in the 1990s and handpainted thimbles came back into their own in the small numbers as before.

The artists had access to blank thimbles from any source. This would give them creative freedom and some commercial success.

Handpainted thimbles take a while to paint, so they are created in a limited supply.

Many of the artists didn't only paint thimbles – they formed a minute part of their output. They painted vases, plates, brooches, lidded jars, figurines of fauna, paintings, coffee pots, miniatures and handpainted enamel boxes etc.

A few of these artists have painted on wood, glass and silver thimbles and on enamel. They are outside the scope of this topic. Thimbles with handpainted flowers affixed will also not feature here.

See my topics on specific British painters of china thimbles:

Graham Payne (1981) who employed at least six freelance painters
Gerald Delaney

Jasper's of Yorkshire (Margaret and Mandy Palmer)

Francesca employed at least 16 thimble artists and other character head thimbles makers number 20 Royal Worcester thimble painters

I have featured 34 British thimble handpainters.

When I have fewer than five thimble examples from specific painters – they will follow at the end of the section of thimbles - both in alphabetical order by painter's surname.

If the thimble only has the painter's initials, they follow on from this section.

Lastly is a very small section where the handpainted thimble is obviously British from the topic or the shape.

Along the way I have learnt heaps – and I can now recognise thimbles painted by these artists.

It takes sheer talent to paint accurately on such a small area of china.

I hope you will enjoy the journey as much as I have.

David Bowkett

Bowkett was a Royal Worcester trained artist and worked there between 1948-1962

he moved to Cornwall and bought a pub in the 1970s

David opened his own studio in Devon he began to paint thimbles in 2002

this is where his RW training came to the fore – using birds and fruit themes painted on bone china these included the signature on the outside and the traditional sprig on the verso thimbles have the David Bowkett backstamp and his signature is D Bowkett

Bowkett died in 2009

Chris Burns is a Royal Worcester trained artist in 1987 when RW were no longer producing handpainted thimbles, Burns opened his own studio in the Malvern Hills, Worcestershire here he established Harcourt China before the use of this mark, the thimbles were marked Malvern England he provided thimbles to The Thimble Guild. I have used the catalogue dates his thimbles are not dated (with one exception in 1994) there is a lovely range of designs capturing the surrounding English countryside. His thimbles evolved to sculpt thimbles in relief giving a three dimensional aspect thimbles have the Harcourt China backstamp and his signature C Burns is located on the inside thimbles are not named – I have used names from the TTG catalogues etc

Peter Carver

I first came into contact with Peter Carver from Solihull in West Midlands in 2013 thru a Canadian thimble collector

she encouraged Peter to try painting thimbles

Carver's specialty is painting birds – see for yourself his quirky, almost humorous style on his retirement, with interests in professional watercolour painting, furniture restoration and painting enamel boxes amongst many others, with typography and graphic design in his working life, he accepted the challenge having a kiln, Peter was able to make his own china thimbles – he gilded some of his apices and these are distinctive as the gold only covers the immediate indentations

he experimented with poly clay, which enabled him to try sculpted thimbles

Carver's thimbles are signed PC (but look like DR): you can see for yourself with three examples the thimble names are those of the painter but not lettered within thimble (2013-2014) but thimbles are not dated

Peter also painted on enamel

Nigel Creed - Ken Russell (1987-1999)

Creed is a Master Painter and worked at Royal Worcester in 1963

Russell (1934-2010) was Royal Worcester's last Master Gilder

Thimble Society of London commissioned Nigel and Ken to produce handpainted thimbles for sale thru their thimble catalogues

Nigel signed his thimbles with his initials NC on the outside near the painted part

Ken was the gilder and used 24ct gold. Sometimes the apex is gilded. Russell is signed inside

Ken had retired by 2004. He gilded thimbles for other thimble painters names used are purely descriptive, not being named by the painters – thimbles are not dated Royal Worcester collectors will recognise many of these designs as those that came from the factory, given a modern look his characters and buildings are made of Cornish clay – quirky. The characters rarely have facial features. In June 1984 issue of the TTG, Bryn was first named as Eric. Earwicker's thimbles often have colourways, probably changed to at a later date. In 1990 Robert introduced thimble holders of clay to display his various thimbles.

Robert Earwicker (1984-1997)

TTG sold all these thimbles.

Neil Higgins (1983-1985)

Higgins first came to my attention as the handpainter of the Robin Hood set of six character head thimbles, with the brand name Healacraft, using the initials of NH inside the thimbles his name has also been associated with Sutherland. I speculate that's where he learnt his skills as a handpainter of thimbles?

Neil's signature of N. Higgins is always lettered in brown in his thimbles and may be found lettered on either the inside or outside thimbles are not dated. He painted thimbles for a short period, Higgins often uses a blue wash as the ground for his painting

Higgins undertook commissions thru The Thimble Guild – including a few of pets he subsequently painted for Staffordshire Enamels (1995)

Christopher Hughes (2003-2005)

Hughes (born 1948) began his apprenticeship with Royal Worcester in 1960 and branched out on his own in January 1980

he has a studio in Holly Green Worcestershire where he painted thimbles from 1987 the backstamp inside the thimble is The Christopher Hughes Collection or Christopher Hughes (later) his thimbles are signed Christopher Hughes on the outer rim thimble apexes are completely gilded, and sometimes they join the upper gilt line – he uses a thicker rim of gilding than other British painters. All are painted on fine bone china thimbles are painted all round even if the verso is just a pale matching wash thimbles are not named, nor dated

Julie Menzies (1993-2016)

Menzies grew up the Biggar area in the lowlands of Scotland she was never formally trained in art tho painting was a passionate hobby Julie worked in the despatch section of The Thimble Guild (TTG) in Biggar until the owner, Arthur Bell, discovered her artistic abilities she began to handpaint thimbles commissioned and personalised by thimble collectors thru TTG – painting their pets, homes, gardens etc she specialises in portraits and for five years Menzies was the TGG's chief thimble artist she became their chief designer of art in 1998-2005, which required her to create thimble designs these were translated into lithographs or transfers/decals tho her thimbles seem to be handpainted, all Menzies thimbles after 1998 are decaled thimbles handpainted portraits fill the entire front of thimble – her decal thimble portraits are more cameo sized her handpainted thimbles bear the signatures J.M., Julie. M. or Julie Menzies on fine bone china with 22ct gold rims Menzies can handpaint three thimbles a day – no wonder they were offered in limited editions some thimbles will have the backstamp The Thimble Guild Julie was also a designer for Sutherland China Julie also painted wooden thimbles

Platt (born 1935) was commissioned by The Thimble Society of London to paint thimbles in 1990s for sale thru their catalogues

he is Royal Worcester trained (from 1951)

Peter's thimbles, once he left RW, are uniquely his own: plenty of gilding and the subjects are set in an ornate cameo signature is P Platt which can usually be found in the lowest part of the cameo

Ryoko Ottignon (1978)

Ryoko's studio - Ottignons of Norfolk – is in Starston where she is the hand decorator and ceramist Ottignon's thimbles are based on copies of Georgian designs from 1780s – designs found on cups and saucers of Lowestoft (1757-1802) and New Hall (1781-1835) porcelain factories maker's mark in the form of a sandglass ii burnished gold is painted on the inside (it may look like the Roman numeral for ten when the dot isn't clear) her thimbles require five firings to fix the colours and glaze on the cream porcelain thimbles are presented in thimble boxes handturned in mahogany and waxed to give an antique patina accompanied by a signed, dated and numbered certificate – the list of what else Ottignons retails is listed on the verso of each certificate the glaze has crazed with age on her white thimbles

Rachel Pugh (2000-2004)

Pugh handpainted bone china thimbles for The Thimble Guild from September 2000 she was also a designer at TTG from 2000-2005 where her art was translated into decals

Pugh was born in Cumbria. She lives in Cyprus where she still designed thimbles for TTG Rachel's signature R.Pugh is on the inside of the thimble, often using gold paint if the thimble is named, it is lettered inside. In some instances The Thimble Guild backstamp is present.

Sheila Whitcombe (1988-2005)

Whitcombe (nee Watson) began painting portraits at 16 she became a modeller for Royal Worcester, so never painted thimbles for them

Sheila paints under the name of Dunheved from Cornwall signed S Whitcombe on the front of bone china thimbles – sometimes inside, in lower case

Dunheved thimbles are unusually large measuring 30-35cm in height

this gives the artist a larger surface to paint

she needed specialised knowledge of ceramic oxides to paint her historical figures with their jewel colours

the name is lettered on the outside verso

Sheila's painting may creep onto the apex to complete the picture her artwork is quite pale – the colours here are stronger for clearer pictures

Derek Wilson (1983-2011)

Wilson is a Royal Worcester trained artist, 1930-1954 he paints under the name of Dunheved from Cornwall, in his studio near Launceston signed D Wilson, often cleverly camouflaged, on the outside of the bone china thimble Dunheved thimbles are unusually large measuring 30-35cm in height ('generously sized')

being a birdwatcher and a wildlife artist, Derek's thimbles are painted around British birds, wildflowers and animals, and some of the Cornish countryside also feature. The latter may have been sold all over Cornwall?

bird name is lettered on inside rim – places on the outside verso when the number painted is limited, the number is printed on the inside

Derek works on two sizes of Dunheved thimbles – the smaller size thimblette is used in the catalogues. These were used more frequently towards the end of his career green Dunheved mark is from late 1970s when smaller sized thimbles were used - not signed

Anne Young (1993-2003)

Young's barge or canal ware painting is uniquely British she certainly mastered this folk art form in the miniature size required to paint on thimbles most of her thimbles are signed and some are dated – they range from 1980s-1990s

Anne's thimbles are signed on the inner rim Anne Young – lettered upside down dates when included are also inside there are traditional background colours and the lovely gloss adds to their appeal

it's the trim around the rim where one sees the details the main design is replicated on the verso

Young also painted wooden thimbles

L: 1998 – her book – sticky label
