

Easter thimbles

There is a growing trend to have collections within thimble collections and a small, specialised themed area is Easter thimbles. For thimbles to fit within this category they should be dated. This then qualifies them both as commemorative as well as Easter thimbles.

The Thimble Guild of Biggar in Scotland has featured Easter thimbles in their catalogues over the years. These seem to be undated or only produced for one year. If the thimbles are not branded, it is difficult to track the makers after the event.

Heritage Collection

sterling silver - UK in Australia, Heritage Collections marketed hallmarked these thimbles each issue has the maker's mark of a different silversmith - all were assayed in Birmingham. All are lightweight (.999 silver) and boxed with authenticity numbered, certificates some certificates attest that they were made for the Australian market others would have been made for the British and American markets once the thimble is removed from the box, they lose the connection with Heritage Collection
